

Sexuality Lesson Plan

Acknowledging the Consequences of Homophobia

To be used with accompanying Statement Cards - see separate PDF

Version 1

Seated activity: each participant takes a statement card. If they feel that in their role they can do what you read out, then they award themselves one mark. They will need to keep their own scores. At the end of the activity ask for highest and lowest scores, the participants to reveal their roles and allow for discussion.

Version 2

Step forward if... each participant takes a statement card. If they feel that in their role they can do what you read out, then they step forward one pace.
